Antigua to Unveil New PGA Show Booth

PEORIA, ARIZ. —The Antigua Group, Inc.—one of the nation’s leading designers and marketers of lifestyle apparel under the genuine Antigua brand has announced today they will introduce a new 2,500 square foot booth at the PGA Show, January 24, 2018.

The new display will include eight work stations that will present the Spring and Summer 2018 collections for men and women along with additional display areas for headwear and accessories.

“This new exhibit structure beautifully displays all of our products and makes it very convenient for our customers to review collections and place orders for their shops,” said Ron McPherson, President and CEO of The Antigua Group. “This new display is a strong statement for the continual growth of the Antigua brand.”
