ANTIGUA AND THE LPGA EXTEND LICENSE AGREEMENT

PEORIA, ARIZ. —The Antigua Group, Inc, one of the nation’s leading designers and manufacturers of lifestyle apparel under the genuine Antigua brand, today announced an extension through 2022 of its long-standing license agreement with the LPGA.

The agreement’s official designations for Antigua include Official Licensee of the LPGA, Official Licensee of the LPGA Amateur Golf Association and Official Licensee of the 2021 Solheim Cup. Antigua product with various LPGA logos will be available at a variety of retail outlets and at host tournament sites. Antigua provided the American Team uniforms for the 2011, 2013, 2015 and 2017 Solheim Cups and is represented on the LPGA Tour by many notable players including major champions Stacy Lewis, Brittany Lincicome and Brittany Lang, along with Tour veterans Ally McDonald, Gerina Piller, Lizette Salas, Austin Ernst, Kim Kaufman and Alena Sharp.

“All of us at Antigua are so proud of our long-standing relationship with the LPGA and our design and development of Team USA uniforms for four Solheim Cups since 2011,” said Ron McPherson, President and CEO of The Antigua Group. “Women’s golf and girl’s golf are key components to the long-term health of our game and the LPGA is the driving force in growing participation in women’s golf.”
